

Key Vocabulary:

past - has happened or gone by already present - existing at this time or currently similarities - they are similar or the same as each other differences - a different form or not alike locational language - near, far, next to, between directional language - left, right, forwards, backwards

above

below

Transport!

Links

In Reception we explored similarities and differences between now and the past.

In Reception we built types of transport in the construction area.

Key Knowledge: Joseph Clough

- London's first black bus driver
- Joe started by driving horses but soon learnt to drive vehicles
- He became a regular driver on bus route 11

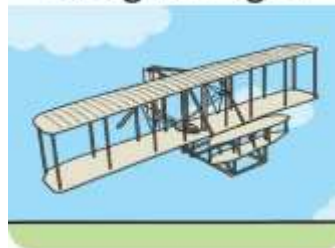

Key knowledge: types of transport (past and present)

penny-farthing

bicycle

Wright Flyer

passenger plane

bus