Thought of the Week

During Collective Worship recently, we have been revisiting our Christian vision and thinking about what it means to be Happy - Inspired - Loved at St Jude's.

Also, how we can make others feel Happy, Inspired and Loved every day.

We are making a new display for our front entrance to showcase this to all our visitors to the school, and we need your ideas!

Please encourage your child to share their ideas and opinions on the form which they can find on their Google Classroom! Younger children may need an adult to help them type.

Thank you - we can't wait to see what you think of!

What has Reception been up to?

This week Reception went to Brockwell Greenhouses! We had a wonderful time learning all about plants. We learnt about the plant lifecycle and went to explore the gardens finding different coloured flowers. After that we played games about plants and planted our own bean to take home. We came back to school and read Jack and the Beanstalk!

Windmill Cluster Poetry Slam 2024

St Jude's took part in the annual Windmill Cluster Key Stage 2 Poetry Slam this year again, and we did not disappoint!

The Theme this year was 'Hear My Voice' and the children were selected by their St Jude's teachers for the poems they had written during their English lessons at school.

A massive congratulations to the following children for qualifying for the quarter finals (some in groups and some as solo poets!)

Ivy (Year3)

Basma, Suriah and Markayla (Year 4/5)

Erin and Leni (Year 4/5)

Sienna, Freya, Salem and Isla (Year 5/6)

Lilias and Adwoa (Year 5/6)

Carter (Year 6)

They all performed in the quarter finals, with some children going through to the semi finals and even finals, competing against other schools in the Windmill Cluster. They represented St Jude's brilliantly by performing so confidently, having such powerful words and showing our Christian values throughout!

The finals were hosted at Trinity Academy and we were joined by Adisa Stephen-Ezeocha who performed some of his own poetry to us.

A huge well done to Lilias and Adwoa (Year 5/6) who made it through to the finals and won 3rd place overall!
